After a year, of awkward moments, inside jokes and lots of laughs, we got to see that Gillard Babes will go far... and not just normal far, way beyond. Here's what the Gillard Babes will be in a few years time...

Quincy: Most likely to be arrested for talking back to the police.

Marysarah: Most likely to be super quiet...but the life of the party once you get to know her.

Eboni: Most likely to open a new hair salon that has poetry readings.

Ana: Most likely to make someone fat just by feeding them Mexican candies.

Nikki: Most likely to, let's face it, marry Justin Bieber.

Marief: Most likely to beat Messi on a football match.

Julianne: Most likely to be a famous musician!

Chanel: Most likely to be on TLC.

Sarah: Most likely to hide in an attic behind a bookshelf for years.

Natalia: Most likely to add tracking devices to her stuff so it won't get lost — in her own room.

Maitee: Most likely to play rugby for New Zealand and teach us the Hacka.

Apolline: Most likely to live next door to Gladys and knock on each other's wall whenever they want to talk.

Coralie: Most likely to be the next Beyonce.

Gladys: Most likely to be banned from a library due to her laugh.

Lorena: Most likely to provide a lifetime supply of goodies to the future Gillard Babes.

Carlotta: Most likely to be full of germs and million-dollar smiles.

Frida: Most likely to be looking for her glasses.

Bea: Most likely to create a new trendy dance move.

Elsa: Most likely to be the spokeswoman at a train station-- without a microphone.

Sonja: Most likely to be the next Iron Chef America.

Sophia: Most likely to be the next Bill Gates.

Ana Paula: Most likely to be the owner of the most expensive phone bill on Earth.

Marcela: Most likely to be the next Donald Trump.

Sabrina: Most likely to open her own green house.

Anais: Most likely to ban everyone from entering her room.

Glass House Girl Couplets

First Floor

Romy Zeitlinger

Where is Romy you may say?
She's busy sewing away.

Jessica Walsh

Jessica's baking her PEI bread, bleating goats are singing above her bed

Jessica Burbine

Jessica is a Glass House pro athlete, a hockey player that the boys can't beat.

Clementine Nauzin

Clementine is our gal.
She'll try and be your pal

Carla Cohen

Carla is our Hispanic ball of fun, but man she misses that Mexican sun.

Nina Gros

Nina's still running the track race sunglasses on, going her pace

Michelle Weir

Wow, Michelle is red gated again for PDA with a Mexican

Cindy Lee

Cindy is our rock who never cries.
Oh wait, watch out there's a butterfly!

Evelyne Turin

Evelyne is our house fish.
She swims for a gold finish

Joey Chan

Joey's hosting an Asian dinner.
Her tasty noodles are a winner.

Jodi Chan

Hush a bye Jodi baby.
You won't miss check in...maybe.

Mino

Quebecois boys are the best.
At least, that's what Mino guessed,

Yonna Dunkley-Clark

If you go outside, what do you see?
Why its only Yonna talking to trees.

Second Floor

Akayla Onabowale

Akayla's crying like crazy again,
she just finished watching Brokeback Mountain

Jahel

It's raining outside but J plays guitar, inside her Rainbow shines bright like a Star

Patricia

Patricia hates airboats and bugs.
She's always wrestling on rugs

Sammy Ewing

Fruit Ninja is Samantha's favourite game, bananas and combos her new goals and aims.

Nui

Nui is probably looking for notes, on class stuff that she already wrote

Clara Pfander

German Clara dances go-go, listening to Disco Pogo

Vanessa Anglade

Vanessa dreams of Bohemian peas and rice.
Canadian stuff it seems just doesn't suffice.

Rumsha Khan

Rumsha's music is so loud.
She plays it like she's so proud

Melissa Naami

Melissa is our number one diva.
She knows what she wants and it's to viva

Valeria Lopez

Valeria is constantly smiling.
She is secretly just conniving

Ana Lorena

Ana is our resident pretty princess.
When she begins to sing no one can resist

Ella Russell

Ella is our cutie pie, always sweet...at least she tries.

Laurie Illick

Laurie's our quirky outgoing girl.
Take her hand and you'll go for a whirl.

Emilie Hoffeber

Emilie is obsessed with defenestration.
Sometimes she dreams of its implementation

Luisa Zaragosa

Luisa is still in the shower.
She has no shame and is our power

Jennifer Chang

If anyone's looking for Jen, she's studying 'til God knows when.
Staff:

Ms. Harding

Ms. Harding is asleep in the common room, the 7th Formers have their 1 AM curfew.

Mme. Laramee

Mme. Laramee is our TOD gem.
All the boys keep asking her to sing to them

Mme. Turcotte

Chapel is Mme. Turcotte's favourite place.
She loves shushing us and getting on our case

Julie Lowry

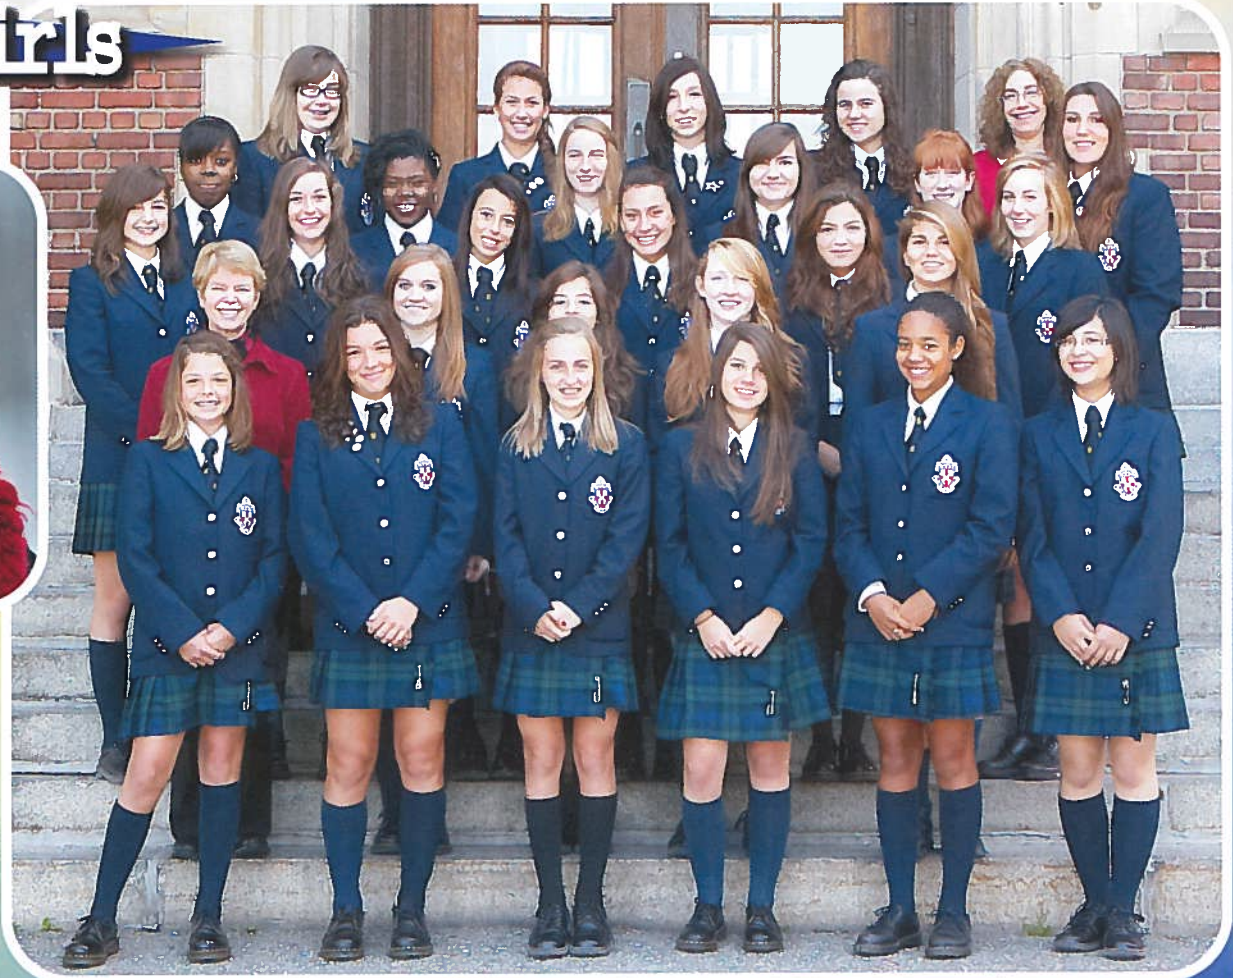

Julie tries to guide us in the right direction.
Oops, I guess nobody passed the room inspection.

Sarah Lowry

Sarah still won't open the tuck.
She thinks we're all slim out of luck.

A Typical Day in Ross

7:30 – Kieran says good morning to a spotless Ross and heads off to Dining Hall
 7:45 – Chris H arrives early and scrambles to finish his homework as Owen pesters him with questions why his work was not done the night before
 8:00 – Marc-Andre and Nathan begin their daily shenanigans while Jonathan H and Graeme watch in admiration
 8:15 – The early-morning calm in Ross is interrupted when David, Gabriel A and Mathieu arrive to poke fun at everyone in the room
 8:25 – Mickael and Tanguy hastily rush off in time for Chapel where Sam is busy putting Mozart to shame
 8:35 – Eric, Simon B and Simon P arrive at Chapel
 8:45 – Mr. Madsen wishes us a good day as we head off to class after a friendly reminder to keep Ross clean
 10:55 – Justin and William return to drop their bags off in Ross at break, giving their opinions on the latest basketball news. They are soon informed by Marcel that their opinions are in fact wrong, and his are right.
 12:10 – Brendan and Josh make their way to the gym to toss the Frisbee around in preparation for their next game
 12:30 – Edouard tries to convince Chad that the teacher wasn't kidding when she put him on early prep
 12:40 – Shawn and Jakob come into Ross and witness activities they thought only occurred in the circus
 1:05 – James and Kolin casually take their bags from Ross and head off to the quad to enjoy their spare period
 3:15 – Xavier, Brandon and Fred discuss a recent Chemistry test while chatting in Doolittle's before crease.
 5:00 – Ryan and Jesse sit in Ross watching the latest video as Jonathan C regales stories of his recent exchange to Scotland
 6:15 – Chris R keeps Gabriel L company as he waits for his ride and gossip about the day
 7:30 – Dylan, our noble Head of House, heads home still unable to comprehend how his team showed such a poor performance at the mini World Cup
 9:15 – Kieran says goodnight to Ross after time well spent at Library Prep

"The Amazing City of Grier-North-Town"

When entering Grier-North-Town, first of all, outside you will see Wisse "The Bald", trying to play basketball against twelve year olds. Entering our mansion you will see, on your left in the boot room, Simon "The Pilot" and Vince "The Vampire" trying to fight with each other over the last bits of pizza they ordered. You might see Mr. Gilman drawing or sleeping on the TOD chair at the end of the hallway. By himself Ji-Han the pessimistic "Beat-Boy" will be making beats for the second year running. Frankie "Loverboy" will be writing his own guitar songs with Desmond just agreeing and playing whatever Frankie asks him to. Somehow, in that same room, there will be "Ming The Yan" silently playing his racing games with the rest of Chinatown watching. Suddenly we hear Angus "The KK Lover", walking in the hallway with his obnoxious flip-flops. Edouard the "Je suis un Bonhomme de Neige" is obviously upstairs with Fred the "DJ Boy" trying to prepare their next weekend in Montreal while it is still the middle of the week.

Going upstairs we enter the international airport. Many cultures are flying around as Hermann le "French Vietnamese" plays his 17th century accordion while facing off against his roommate the tiny Kevin "Mini-Me Lu" at Warcraft 3. Charlie, "Augusto's Obvious Twin", is running around with his rugby ball talking, talking, and talking, whilst watching Tyler "The Traitor" play video games when he's supposed to be doing his month-late homework assignments in his numerous courses. As we pass Tyler's room we go into "Louis-Lewis" and "Desmond the Calculator" territory. Louis is studying for the test he may have two weeks later, or planning his next midnight date with Sabrina. Desmond will be finishing the Asian fantasy stories that he started in physics class the same day. Down on the south side we have Charles-Alexis either sorting his cosmetics or walking around with no shirt on, showing off his "Natural body". Deep down in the basement slums, we have our two "used-to-be's", Ty "The Brock" Price, probably constantly texting Hannah, or Alex the "Little BIG Man" planning his next adventure with his native brothers Kolin & Wesley.

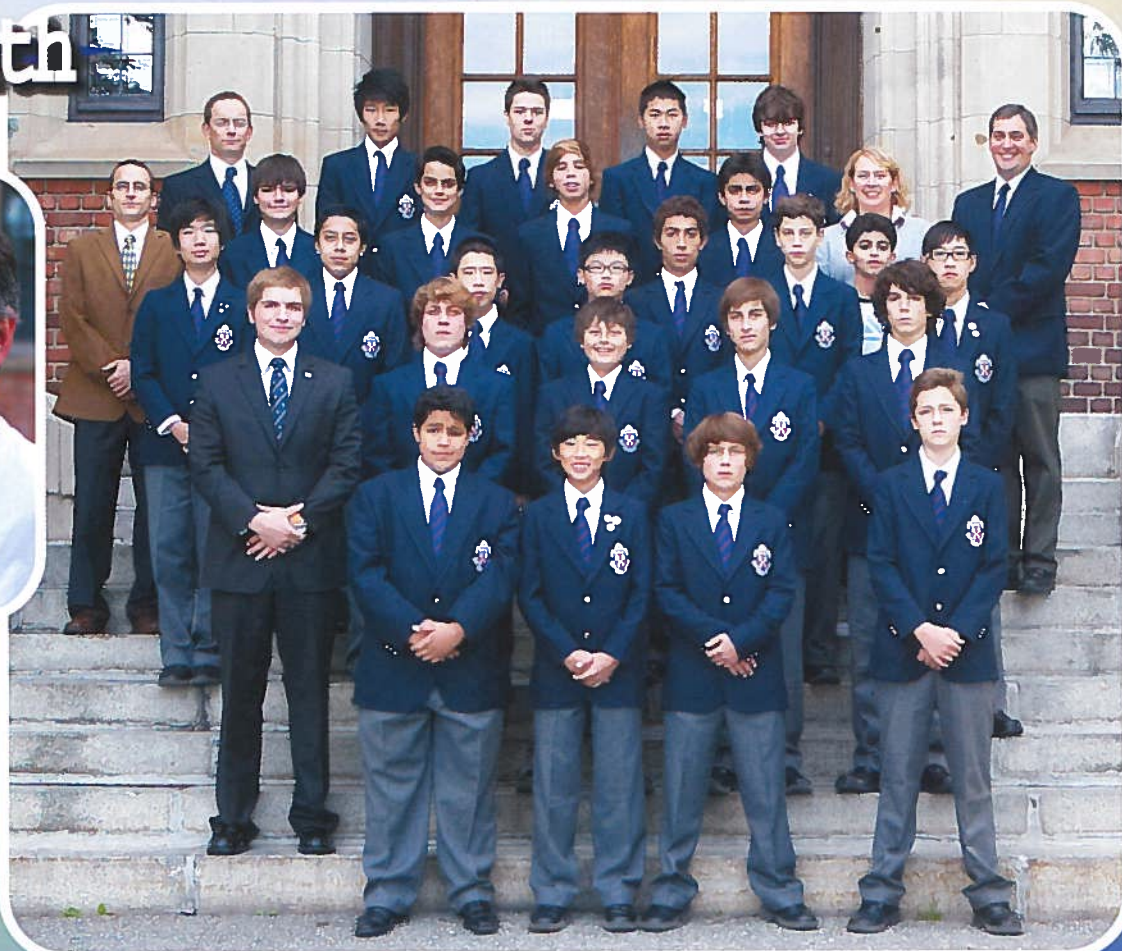

Fortunately we do happen to have our own counsellor in Grier-North-Town, and a member of the Italian Mafia; Eric "The Gamer".

Nowhere ever to be seen, Wesley "The Monster" and Joseph "Graffiti-Man" will be doing their own thing with their gangs somewhere else.

Fun activities while in Grier-North-Town include: Cake-facing people on their birthdays, leaving a mess in the kitchen on absolutely every weekend, or flipping Simon

MacNaughton started out smelling wonderfully clean,
Tidy rooms, spotless walls and windows with screens.
Then arrived the herd of fine young men,
Greeted by a smile from their house parent Ken.
Our Form IV's were young but definitely not shy,
JP and Champs Millot two wonderful guys!
Next the Form V's, what a great group of lads,
Many different personalities and tons of weird fads (Djime).

Fab and Abdullah, so much alike

Musical A-Tok and Big tall Mike

Then comes Khalid and Stephen, straight A's all the way,
Our colourful Myung and Ben who at Carnival saved the day.

Last but not least Hitman Barrios and the great Vincent Magras,

All in all a pretty good draw.

Next the Form VI's, mature and proud,
Some studious and savvy, some sporty and loud.

Aziz and Bellini, together through thick and thin,
Sam dying of hunger and Aziz always with a grin.

Adrien, very quiet but quite the soccer player,
Abdulrahman next year will be McNaughton's Mayor.

Matt, the greatest riser of all time,
Charles-Anthony always getting in the last line.

Our three French hockey guys, C-C, Vincent and Jey,
Also the founders of Poutine Highway.

Last but not least, our mighty Form VII's,
Often leaving Ken praying to the heavens.

Vaughan, our valued Head of House who did his own thing,

Aksich with his wires and the leader of the Ring.

Kingsley loved his snacks and other people's clothes,
Sam Nizard hot and cold but always there for his bros.

Patrick, a bruins fan, he was yelled at an awful lot,
Mazin often found in the gym hittin' a jump shot.

Last but not least Domino's and Cola,

Our Fearless leader, the great Chai Tzola.

There ya have it kids, another year come and gone,
Some stick around and some will move on.

All will remember the roller coaster ride,
But who was better - school or riverside?

Good times like Roll-a-check or the great Chaivention, Markenstein's epic softball catch I just had to mention.

Williams House 2010-11

"From the move to the honeymoon..."

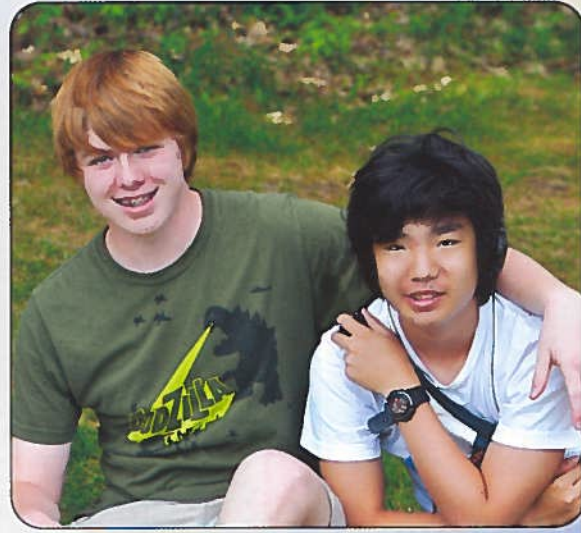

This year seven of us made the move from Chapman House to Williams House while our old home was in need of renovations. There we joined seven new BCS students and had a year that we will never forget. Not being completely tucked away from campus took some getting used to, and although this year started off with many changes and was not quite perfect (Williams had to undergo some renovations of its own this year!), we quickly realized that we would survive happily under one roof in our new home. From Mr. D's chicken nights to the many movie nights in the William's common room with Glen, we made great memories from September to June.

Les Sept Jours de Simon Labrosse

Le vendredi 13 Mai, les élèves d'expression dramatique ont présenté une adaptation de la pièce Les Sept Jours de Simon Labrosse de Carole Fréchette.

Ils ont travaillé plusieurs semaines pour arriver à un incroyable résultat où les spectateurs se sont laissé emporter par l'histoire plutôt triste du protagoniste, Simon Labrosse, interprété par Coralie N'Doré A. Les personnages, partagés par Hannah Walti, Shawn Cameron, Vincent Magras et Natalia Duguay, illustraient, sous une couverture comique, une profonde détresse des laissés-pour-compte de notre société. Au total, près de 100 élèves, enseignants et parents ont vu la pièce ce qui a fait de cet expérience un souvenir à jamais gravé dans la mémoire des acteurs qui ont très bien performé avec talent et générosité.

Lennoxville Clean Up

The BCS Human Rights Group has completed its two-year project of raising money for Free the Children's Brick by Brick program to build a school in Eor Ewuaso, Kenya. On Friday, June 3rd, Melanie de Andrades and Jimmy Ung of Free the Children came to Bishop's College School to accept a cheque for $8861 during the school's morning assembly. Clara Dagenais, BCS 2010, who spearheaded the project in 2009 returned to the school to be present at the ceremony. The representatives of Free the Children thanked the school and spoke of the importance of education in eradicating poverty and promoting progress in developing countries.

Mountain Day

September 9

On Thursday, September 9, the entire student body of Bishop's College School, accompanied by some staff members climbed to the top of Mount Orford.

The fog was so thick that we couldn't even see the top of the mountain while hiking up. Because of this fog we had to take our house pictures before we left the school grounds. The odds were against us, the rain poured down and the wind howled as we climbed our way to the top.

Luckily, we had a support team at the top of the mountain, houseparents, Headmaster, and the school nurse, who rewarded us with chocolate bars and candy for all the hard work we had put into walking up the mountain. There was a heated cabin at the top as well so we could rest and warm up before our descent.

Once everyone had joined us in the cabin we took a picture of the entire school at the peak of the mountain. Mr. Watt said at that moment, "In twenty years when you look back at this picture, you will remember this day as being fun!" We will not remember this day for its miserable weather nor for its mucky terrain, but because we accomplished something as a community.

Terry Fox Run

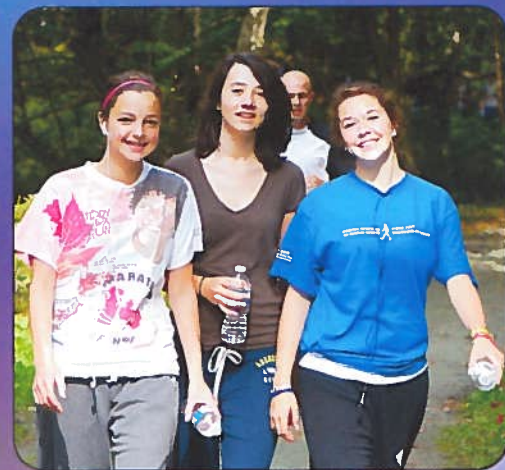

September 19

Terry Fox made an attempt to run all the way across Canada from coast to coast to fight cancer, it was known as the Marathon of Hope. This alone is a beautiful act but what made it even more powerful is that Terry Fox had to have one of his legs amputated due to cancer.

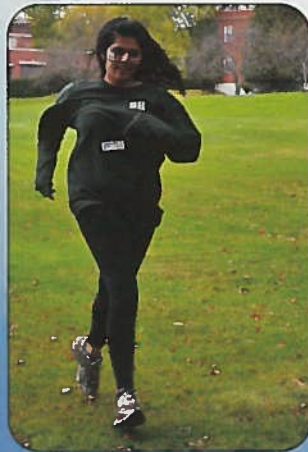

Even though he ran 42 kilometres every day he was not able to finish his marathon because cancer had spread to his lungs. Terry Fox fought his hardest against cancer but in the end he lost. However he will forever be remembered in the hearts of Canadians as a hero.

Sunday September 19th 2010, like every year, the BCS community organized a run for all to participate to continue the fight for cancer where Terry Fox left it thirty years ago. Every Student was involved in the run - parents you can be proud of your child because seeing our whole student body run for Terry Fox can only make you smile.

Football Spirit

October 29

The Prefects made an exciting and really purple announcement in Chapel Thursday morning telling everyone that Friday would be a Spirit Day.

Short classes were scheduled for the morning with an early lunch planned at 11:30. Poster-making and face-painting, lead by the Prefects, took place in the student center and then the school headed to Coulter Field at Bishop's University to watch the First Team Football players battle Stanstead College on an on-again off-again rainy afternoon.

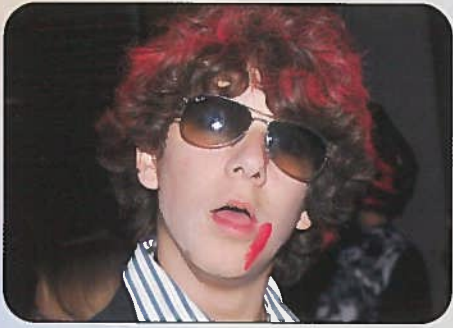

Some excellent team defence and spectacular runs by Sam Nizard and Charles-Alexis Lalande along with some crisp passes by QB Arthur Rozon helped the purple and white start to scrap back into the game.

However, today was not to be our day and Stanstead made a couple of interceptions in the fourth quarter as the BCS offence valiantly tried a passing game to mount the come-back that wasn't to be. The final score was 48 - 16, but the school stuck it out to the end to cheer on our team and the team left the field with their heads high knowing they had not quit.

Parade and Chapel

Bishop's College School hasn't participated in the Lennoxville Armistice Day Parade in three years. It was about time that we did it again, and what a welcome we had.

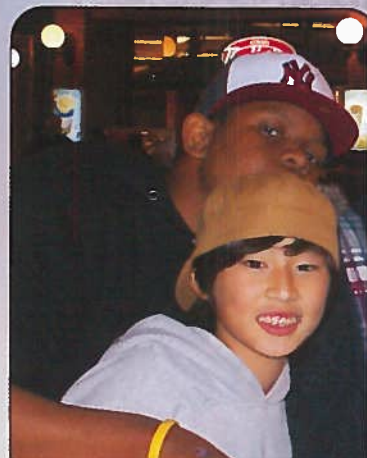

The weather must have been negative ten, and in a kilt and flimsy white gloves, we might as well have been at the North Pole. The band members fingers were frozen to the metal of their instruments, and the officers' swords had a layer of frost. But through this weather, our NCOs prevailed. They were precise in their movements and looked just as good as the real soldiers standing next to them.

The Color Party was a source of great pride, standing tall, holding their flags straight to the sky. Throughout the crowd, murmurs of appreciation rose, complementing our Corp. and talking about how good it was to see BCS in the event once more. Our presence was a great joy for many onlookers. and they hope to see us again. The community of Lennoxville is proud of their history,

The Theatre Department's most recent production, the suspense comedy Art of Murder, was a great success. Telling the story of an artist who wondered what his paintings would be worth if he were dead, the play kept the audience guessing right to the end.

Remarkably written by Edgar Award-winning playwright Joe DiPietro, Art of Murder's excellent cast of only four created an engaging evening of theatre for audiences at the R. Lewis Evans Memorial Theatre in January. Dylan Wayne played Vincent, the arrogant and slightly shady art dealer. Christopher Rae was Jack Brooks, the psychotic artist and Helene Babakissa played his longsuffering wife Annie. In her first role at BCS. Ana Paula Perez Gil Roias

Argentina Rugby Tour

March 18
to
April 3

Over the March break 20 students from BCS, and 9 students from the Sherbrooke Abénakis along with our coaches and Mr. Robert Charlton, who acted as photographer, travelled to Argentina.

The trip was definitely a success. Not only did we get to play against some of the top clubs in the country, but we also had the opportunity to practice with one of the national rugby team coaches. Off the field, the experience was just as incredible. Half of our time spent in the country was with our hosts. Even though they only spoke a little English and most of us certainly didn't speak any Spanish, language was not a barrier when it came to making friends with these generous and welcoming people. Some of the best moments of the trip were spent off the field with our hosts learning about their customs and traditions.

Stoker Arts Festival

April 30

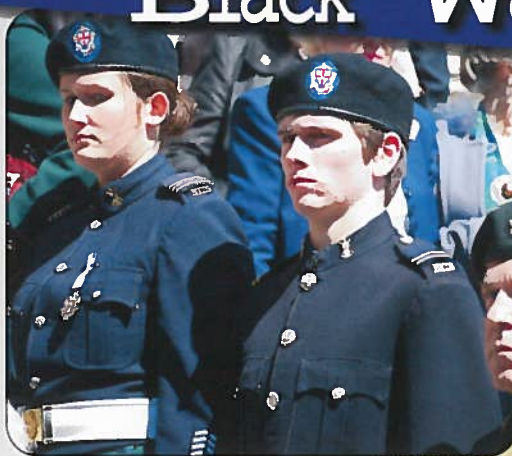

The Stoker Arts Festival was held on Saturday, April 30th. The morning was kicked off with musical performances by students followed by a short play featuring Chai Tzola and Dylan Wayne.

All our students then participated in two outdoor events featuring student-conceived art pieces. Happy Trees were created in the Quad in which every student wrote a positive message on a pre-cut ornament that was then laminated and hung on a few trees. Each clan built an inukshuk in the Sculpture Meadow, near Williams. Once again, the Festival was a successful student empowered morning of art, music and theatre.

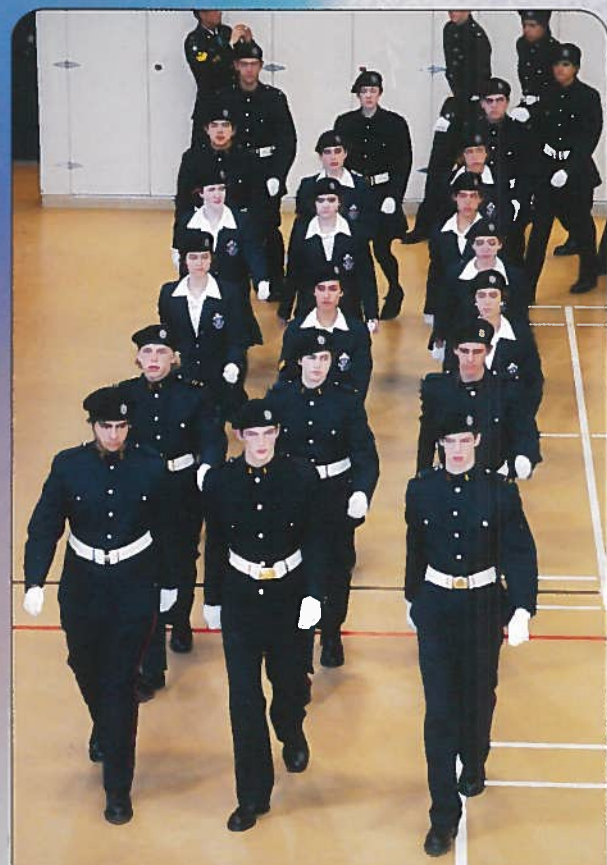

Black Watch Parade

Montreal
May 1

Sunday, May 1st, 35 members of the Bishop's College School Cadet Corps travelled to Montreal to march in the annual Black Watch Parade.

This year marked the 75th anniversary of the affiliation of Bishop's College School and the Black Watch. After marching downtown Montreal we attended a church service to commemorate those who died while serving and protecting their country, as well as to honour those who continue to serve, especially overseas. The students who took part in this parade represented BCS very well, our marching and precision was the best we have ever seen. Everyone did a great job!

Years

On May 20th Bishop's College School #2 Cadet Corps had their 150th inspection. Again this year, the corps was directed by Major Gilles Nichols, JRMG CD CO.

Old Boy Colonel Anthony R. Graham, LL.D. (BCS '74) from the Royal Regiment of Canada was our guest of honour. He was very impressed with our parade this year as student's willpowers were put to the test: marching, participating in drills and standing still for over two and a half hours. Every student took part in the inspection whether they were part of the parade, in the band, in the halftime play on first aid, or part of QM (to pick up the students who faint!). Colonel Graham was so impressed with the whole inspection this year that he decided to reward the entire school with a half holiday, which the students will enjoy on

Along with Mrs. Goldfinch, the delegates planted a serviceberry bush in the name of BCS. The bush is henceforth known as Beky 7, as each letter comes from our first names.

We were proud to have the largest flag at the conference, although it did require two flag-bearers for the opening ceremony.

Activities at the conference included a chase around Toronto, service that included helping out at a food bank, and attending talks by speakers who addressed issues of discrimination and equity in society.

We came home with great memories and a collection of new friends from around the world.

December Break

Participating in a Round Square Service Project was an interesting experience. It left me feeling grateful for everything I have and achieve. I would like to thank Mrs. Ellen Goldfinch for all of her preparation in setting up my project in Honduras. I couldn't have done it without you. But, other than getting sick, going on this trip was a life experience that I will always remember. I highly recommend that people take this opportunity and make a difference in the world. I promise the world will thank you for everything that you put into it.

Lasting Memories: "Time flies but memories last". I can't thank enough those who have been with me the last three years, but especially those who helped me get through this one. Form 6 was definitely the most eventful year - good and bad. I'll definitely remember the horribly wet AT trip, my wonderful basketball teams, the tournaments and my incredible league-winner rugby teams who added to BCS history. There's also my discovery of theatre when playing Mrs. Frank and acting in Coffee House. I'll remember I laughed a lot backstage. I hope to continue acting. I loved it and everyone who contributed to the play's success. We had to survive

Activities Involved In: House Captain, Choir, Inscape, Senior Football, Senior Basketball

Lasting Memories: The last game of football team. I've never played football before I came to BCS, and it was a challenge to join this crease. I was confused of rules or the positions or sort of it. But as the time goes by, I start understanding and enjoying the sport. In the last game was in BU and every student was watching the game. Everyone was cheering us and I could play the best game in the season. I will join the football crease next year to improve more.

Lasting Memories: For me the best things I will remember about BCS is in the residence outside school time were all the boys from McNaughton are together and just do what they do best. All the crazy things we done inside this house is just insane and I will always remember that for all my life. The Poutine hallway was the best, room 5,6,7,8 the Craziest and the loudest of all the house, the midnight bathroom meeting with Fabian and Abdullah, Jay and Vinny always shouting at each other for absolutely no reason, Mr Ken Raban trying to put Fabian a sleep but still laughing and giggling in their room at pass midnight, Djime wishing he could be part of the Poutine hallway. Sport was a great thing too, CAIS tournament with the soccer team when I pulled of the fire alarm at a local restaurant by ACCIDENT and for hockey I will always remember the team spirit we had and all the achievement we did together. I would like to say Thank you to my great friend Fabian Aspel morals for been there this year and all those crazy time we had together these past four years in China or in Canada, ill miss you a lot and this is not a good bye my friend it's a see you later because our path is made to see each other again.

spare moment spent in the prefect room was hilarious, writing chapel readings, performing chapel readings, watching Jack Sparrow and a Leprechaun fight for gold, the list goes on and on Classes were just as amusing, from Chemistry one-liners, to the biology class turtles and their resort, the New York Trip with my English class, and even Calculus was fun from time to time. This year there was hardly ever a dull moment and I've loved almost every second of it, plus I have a new found appreciation for sleep I've had a great run with BCS, the past six years are packed with memories that will last me for a long time to come, and I'm so glad
I was able to experience this place.

Lasting Memories: The school year went by extremely fast. I was part of Choir, Human Rights and Coffee House. It seems it was yesterday which I moved into Gillard filled with expectations and desire for an adventure. At first, all the new faces were overwhelming. Slowly but surely, I started to recognize people. A more time passed, the strangers became friends. It was with these friends that I lived the BCS experience. It varied from exploding energy to endless laughter. I have so many joyful memories. The sun doesn't shine constantly, but I can always count on my friends for being there on the rainy days.

Home Country: Canada! <3

Nicknames: Emz, Farmer, Emmaniqua, Burger, Cocotte, "The Knee"

Ambition: ...Je ne sais pas!

Lasting Memories: My final year would have never been complete with my sugar daddy (DW), burger (JL), F-C 93 (MH), Bananz (HC) and everyone else whose nicknames aren't as cool! I don't know how we managed to do it without Bob and Monty, but the trips to the NH cottage weren't ever taken for granted. Whether we were pulling a Double D breakdown, dying of laughter in philo or synchronized dancing it was always a good time. It was an emotional year. Between being stood up (twice) by LB, caring after Kaylitz in NYC and being RUGBY CHAMPIONS (once again) I am le tired! But it's because of people like Megan and Hannah I was able to make it. You two are the only people who understand how much you mean to me, it's been what 13 years? Pretty impressive. There's nothing left to say: I love you. I learned a lot this year, but it wasn't always because of a classroom: no one can love calculus as much as NC, ice isn't the only on the road that can slow you down (sometimes a leaf does the trick), and Maxwellism is a religion!

Lasting Memories: It is time to say good-bye, and I can say I'll deeply miss BCS. Laughs, tears, failures but also successes: I'll remember it all. Four years of hard work are coming to an end and yet I know all memories will be lasting forever. Each year I have met different interesting people that have made every year go by so quietly: M.L.S, M.B, A.M, S.C, S.B and more. Gladys, you have made me laugh so much, and also thank you for being there for me, I'll miss you! Nat, my love it's been four years that I know you and I'll never forget you! Thank you to everyone for making BCS such a great experience.

Ambition: To make it big in Hollywood

Probable Destiny: Although Hollywood would be awesome, I can settle for Broadway.

Lasting Memories: I spent three amazing years at BCS not knowing what I would get out of it. Never did I think that I would get a great group of friends, but I did. I will never forget those in class moments of laughter at the most random thing that could possibly happen (Jahel's laugh, or Tyler's stomach). The amazing weekend where I forgot I was in a boarding school. (L'america with Atok). I will never forget the amount of ingenuity and unstoppable laughing that went into creating Prefect chapels with Chai Tzola (Filth) and finally I will never forget the two years I was in love. BCS is just a place, but it's the people within it that make it special. And that's all I have to say about that. I wish y'all the best of luck with one last piece of advice... Git-er-done.

Lifers

Six years ago I arrived just weeks after moving across the pond. Everything was new to me, and I was overwhelmed so much so that I ended up running away during the first day. I had just moved to Canada, and was a timid British kid, with a cute accent, and thanks to my charm (and looks) I was able to make friends, BCS became a little less intimidating. Being at this school has given me a greater appreciation of life. I learned that what you put into the school and life for that matter is what you'll get back. So I became involved in the BCS community through multiple aspects; I had the pleasure of joining various committees, becoming house captain as well as meeting so many different people from various parts of the world. From these I gained personal maturity, patience, and a new perspective on life. I also found a new musical talent, which eventually lead me to become head drummer in our cadets corps. Not to mention my new found passion for Hockey, Rugby and Soccer (Football). Leading to two first team colors. If I was to give any advice from 6 years, it would be don't wait, do it now, get stuck in! It's kind of ironic that, now 6 years are done, I don't want to leave. There's always going to be a part of me that stays here forever. Looking back I have made great friends, memories, and life lessons that will never leave me, none of which would be possible without the support of my parents.

Cheerio! James

It's been a long time coming but I can finally say that I am a Bishop's College School lifer. Since Form II I remember looking up to the Form VII's; they were experienced, intelligent and athletic, everything I wanted to be in six years. Now looking back on my final year here at BCS I feel that I have become even more than I expected to be. All the struggles have given me experience which will serve me in the years to come. The successes have encouraged and motivated me to push myself in all aspects of life, be it academically, athletically or socially. Back in Form II, I was a shy, geeky, brace face girl who was very limited athletically. I didn't have much going for me, but what I did have was perseverance. Once I discovered all the opportunities here at BCS I tried to take advantage of as many as I could. All of them, in some way, helped me to better myself. From going on exchange to Germany, to becoming House Captain, to trying rugby for the first time and being given the responsibility of being Prefect, my years at BCS have given me lessons and memories that will always be with me. Being at BCS for so many years, I've been able to watch it change. I've been able to see students who come and go without having really gotten anything out of BCS; I realized that I couldn't let the same happen to me.

On finishing I need to thank everyone who has helped me through these past six years, my teachers and the school staff, my fellow lifers and friends who have given me many hilarious and meaningful memories, and especially my parents who have supported and encouraged me through all my years, but specifically this year. This all wouldn't have been possible without you. Thanks BCS, it's been a slice. Hannah

I won't pretend that I remember my first year at BCS... or any of the other years I have spent in this winter camp. What I will say is that all six years have managed to blend together into one big blob of good memories. I can see my first weeks in Form II (or was it Form VII?) meeting my house parent Monica Schafer. She has been my mother for six years now.

Monica, you helped me get over my homesickness and were always there to listen to me whenever I was sad or happy, or just... whenever I wanted to talk, which was a lot of time.

Kevin, you were my first friend at BCS. Even after countless hours spent skipping prep together so we could work in the theatre, I still don't know how to speak mandarin.

Hannah, you showed me everyday the meaning of spaz. Thanks for letting me be one around you without laughing at me too much.

Francois, we never figured out what the gravitational pull of a black hole really was, but we had a lot of fun trying to figure it out.

The Prefects, we mostly all made it! I know we had our ups and downs, but I sure can't ever forget our times spent preparing chapels together, doing those chapels and also, of course, prefect camp. Who could ever forget JT? I'm leaving this place next year. Wow, that sounds weird. Even though we will all be going our separate ways next year, let's make sure we don't lose touch. I don't think anything will ever be able to replace the experiences we gained in our time at BCS. Nic

As the years come to a close, and as I sit down to sum up six whole years, I can not. There is no way to easily do this, to put it into a couple hundreds words. So, I would like to present my list.

Things I will not miss about BCS:

- Cadets (let's face it; no one likes cadets)
- Crease every day (I just don't really like running that much...sorry, Mr. Jackson. You were a great coach though!)
- Dining hall food (six years of the same meals has caused me to be very creative when it comes to food)
- The uniforms (don't get me wrong; they are nice uniforms, I'm just ready to move on to normal clothes)

- Ross locker room (the fact that boys share the same locker room as us is a little...tiresome)
- The Ross phone (and the way it constantly goes missing or is broken (11 new phones in one year!))

Things I will miss about BCS:

- The people (whenever I'm asked what I love most about BCS, I just have to say the people; teachers, students, staff)
- Chapel (some of the funniest moments in the last six years have happened during morning chapel)
- Doolittle's (frankly, I have thoroughly enjoyed the snacks and treats over the years)
- Art room (it has been a place of peace and fun for me)
- The prefect room (being able to be in there this year has been awesome)
- Dress down days (being able to wear my own clothes instead of a uniform is the most amazing feeling)
- Ross Girls (they've been my house and my girls for the last six years, come and go as they have)

Thank you to everyone that has made my six years wonderful, especially the lifers. You guys have been there through everything. We survived (thank god).

Love, Megan

Six years at BCS. Wow. I still can't believe that I did it. This may sound shocking to many of you, but my parents sent me to BCS because they didn't see a future in me as I always got in trouble. I first came here when I was 12, and scared the crap out of my Mexican roommate who thought I was peculiar...or simply weird. I was shy, naïve and definitely foreign, and it took me a few weeks to get used to BCS routine. I made good friends, although I constantly made fun of Akayla and abused her stuffed animals.

My long journey wouldn't have been the same without the memorable moments I had with my friends and help of BCS teachers, my houseparent Val, and staff. I will not forget talking about Hans Blix and Kim Jong Il in poli sci with Kolin, Tom and Dylan. I will definitely remember telling people about my weird dreams and Nic constantly telling everyone: "That's such a Yujin story." Yes, believe it or not, I've been made fun of ALL THE TIME! And yes, being a short Asian didn't really help. Thanks again Tom & Alex for telling me to use my "CALCULATOR!!" and Marisa, you're more annoying than I am. While Megan is still on fire, Hannah, you'll grow up to be just like your mom: Nice and somewhat funny (I had to keep it PG-13)

Lifers

Humm.. How do I start? Or how do I summarize? Six years flies by just like this, finishing my final year as a Prefect. Well there are too many things happen in this six years, especially for a boy (well man now) like me, only going back to his real home once a year, or maybe every two years. I'm not alone these six years: I have Nic, Akayla, Yu-Jin, Megan, James, last and most important one, Hannah. It has been more than an adventure for all of us, but guess what? We all survived and we are all going on our separate ways. It is a treat to be able to study in Bishop's College School, not everyone would understand the true meaning of this school, it's unique. This school changes my life in many different ways. Sadly, my journey here is done, it is end of my era, although I still don't understand why I am so famous for all six years, but who cares? As long as I'm smiling at everyone, they will remember me no matter what!

I still remember the first day, it seems like yesterday, all the sport, all the crazy spirit days, dances, trips. It is all great and wonderful memories. I just want to say a huge Thank You everyone, thanks for being part of my family these past six years, teachers, coaches and friends. Thanks Mr Rae and Dylan for the time we all have spent in the theatre, Mr Pfliger for teaching me in basketball, Mr MacDonald for always finding a way to improve my math skills.

This is the last time I will be in the Bishop's College School yearbook, I want all those new or returning students to know, BCS is a great school, and "make the right choices" as Mr Marino says, when you make the right choice, you will not think BCS is a "jail", it will be heaven for you. Kevin

Having been at BCS for six years, I have accumulated too many memories to put into words. Being a lifer means that I have spent a third of my life within the walls of Bishop's College School. It's hard to imagine having spent so much time there. In fact, by the end of it I felt like no time had passed at all. When graduation came, I wanted one more year to make more memories, I wanted more time.

Being at BCS for so long gave me a little bit of "know how" about the school. BCS is not a jail. It's not the chapel or the student centre. It's not breakfast check-in or gating, Saturday night detention or house restriction. BCS is the place where you learn about friendship, loss, and the true meaning of spaz. You meet people who will become lifelong friends.

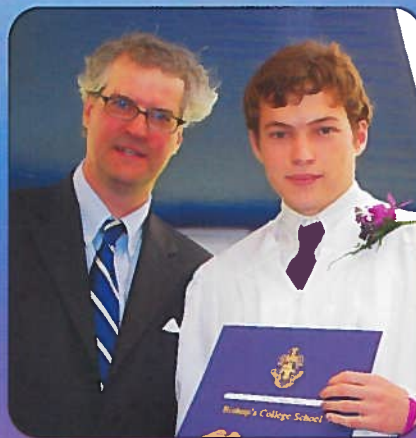

I would like to thank all of the teachers who put up with me for the last half decade. I'd like to thank my houseparents, my TODs and BUs. Most especially I would like to thank the other lifers, the few people who stuck by me for the entire rollercoaster ride that's BCS life. You guys were great and I'll miss you...but we're definitely gonna see each other again. To everyone still at BCS good luck and make sure you make the most of it. These years

Bishop's College School encourages a big world view. While we are a small group of like-minded people who value an education programme rooted in rigour and support, our reach extends across boundaries of all sorts. Here, students from 28 countries co-exist in peace, mutual understanding and support. We are, and should increasingly serve, as a model of motivation, achievement and peaceful co-existence around the world.

Many of you know that Canada's current Governor General is a past parent of five BCS graduates, and he and his wife has been deeply involved in the BCS community. As a former university president, Governor General David Johnson has set a key part of his mandate to be "the education Governor Governor" and to support innovation, compassion, opportunity and accessibility.

In his installation speech, he spoke of the importance of Canada being "a smart and caring nation. A nation of neighbours helping neighbours. A nation where all Canadians develop their talents to their fullest potential. A Canada that applies the knowledge of its citizens to improve the conditions of all at home and around the world." Additionally, the Governor General has set an ambitious strategic initiative for Canada over the next 6 years. It states that "anyone can do anything online by 2017". In many ways, the 2010/11 academic year at Bishop's College School serves as a template for this vision. We continue to create and foster the very values and ambitions espoused by Governor General Johnson, and we provide literal and visual proof within this Yearbook.

Our Yearbook does such a great job of capturing and compiling the sense of positive energy, collective support and commitment to excellence that have served as positive community markers throughout the year. BCS students have been terrific, and they have been supported and led by a strong team of adults. Thanks to the Editors, contributors and Faculty advisors for so ably creating this unifying record of this busy year.

As I referenced at our Graduation Ceremonies, two pieces of advice emerged as being thoughtful and well-received by the student body this year. Faculty member Mr. Nadeau reminds us to carry our own sunshine in our hands or pockets - and we did so even on cloudy days.

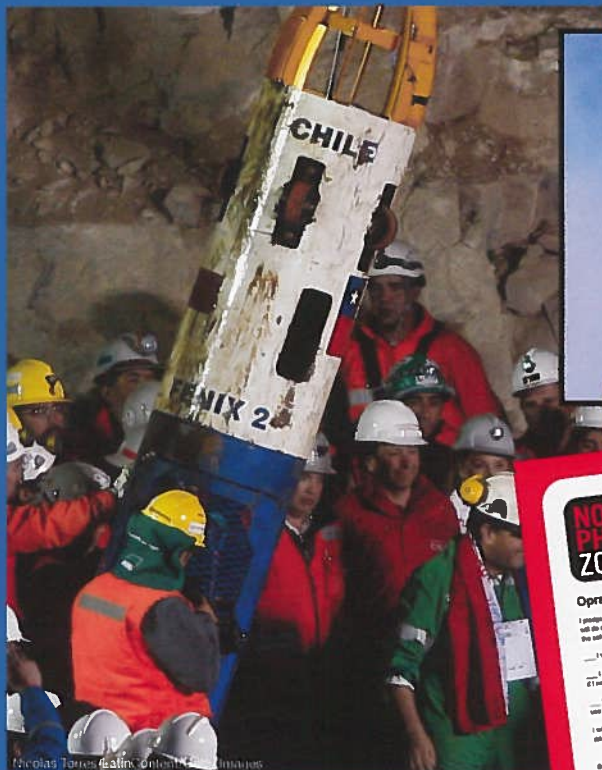

Old Boy Paul Almond (BCS '48) reminds us that by having earned a seat in the BCS Chapel each student already has earned the statistical advantage of being able to achieve your goals. You can achieve your dreams if you are brave enough to live according to your ambitions, and BCS students become graduates who tend to.

And so you see our reflections in our Yearbook – all sunshine and potential.

TRENDS TREND

Plaid Shirt

The boy-style plaid flannel shirt is a popular look for both guys and girls. Just add a pair of perfectly worn jeans.

Top Siders

From popped collars to Top Siders, prep style endures. True Prep shows a new generation how it's done and what it means.

Sequins

Shiny, sparkly sequins become a major fashion trend when Zoe Kravitz and runway models are spotted wearing them on hats, dresses and tops.

Hats

Self-expression is always in fashion and the right hat makes it easy to add panache (and hide a bad hair day). All you need is a cute fedora or a jaunty newsboy cap.

Military Jacket

There's nothing olive drab about this trend. Military jackets are snappy, sleek and chic — a far cry from the oversized Army surplus look of yesteryear.

Energy Drinks

Energy drinks are the beverage of choice among sleep-deprived students, despite concerns that they contain unhealthy levels of sugar and caffeine.

Pillow Pets

Now it's a stuffed animal. And now it's a pillow. Puffy, popular PillowPets™ may be the snuggliest, softest trend of the year.

Dentists report that more and more teens are asking about teeth bleaching procedures, especially for photo-op occasions like graduation and other social events.

Flip Flops

Parents and foot doctors hate them but the flip-flop fad is a year-round phenomenon for guys and girls alike (except during snowstorms).

Dr. Dre's Monster Beats are state-of-the-art headphones that make a strong, street-smart fashion statement. They look cool. And they sound even cooler.

Mineral Makeup

Beauty mavens agree: mineral makeup rocks. These sheer, lightweight, powdery formulas are the smart alternative to gooey, pore-clogging foundations.

Get the look with a classic polo, distressed skinny jeans and leather belt with your favourite treads.

Hippie style is hip once more. Tie-dyed effects on shirts and dresses appear on runways, beaches and boardwalks.

Girls Outfit

Go for an edgy, urban look in these American Rag Twill Skinny Cargos—perfectly paired with a belted Cowl neck sweater!

Big Scarves

Long, flowing scarves become a year-round trend. This must-have accessory is the easiest way to add colour and interest to casual outfits.

Monkey Slippers

It's a toy. It's a slipper. It's a fun fashion trend. Sock monkey slippers are popular in college dorms and at slumber parties.

Long Necklaces

Long, statement necklaces are trend-right. Gossip girls look luxe with Tiffany-style trinkets. Layered, chunky, vintage baubles create an alt-rock, art school vibe.

Silly Bandz

The bandz are banned! Some schools decide that Silly Bandz—the popular silicone rubber bracelets—are too distracting for the classroom.

The mountaineer look comes to the metropolis, as high-performance outdoor apparel makes a comfortable, cold-weather fashion statement.

Over the Knee Boots

Boots go to great lengths. Over-the-knee styles are seen everywhere from runways to red carpets. Trendsetters wear them with short skirts or slim leggings.

Oprah's No Phone Zone Pledge

I pledge to make my car a No Phone Zone. Beginning right now, I will do my part to help put an end to distracted driving by placing the safest driving behavior I commit to observe on:

- ... I will not text while I am driving
- ... I will not text while driving and will use any handheld calling if I need to speak on the phone while I am driving
- ... I will not text or use my phone while I am driving if I need to use my phone, I will pull over to the side of the road
- ... I will ask other drivers I know to do their part to end distracted driving. I pledge to make a difference.
